

What students/teens are saying about Get totally Real!

"Get totally Real has opened up my eyes and mind to the real world that TV could never do. I had a peek in on how things work in real life. Something most people wish they got in high school. I love how it got me involved especially the interview of my mom." H Jackson

"This book has acted as a map, pointing me in the direction of my treasure. Success! The things we think about are intriguing and informative and the work more interesting than my other 'regular' classes." - J. Castillo

"This project has helped me mature and helped me learn things, I didn't really want to learn but know I needed to." T.Thomas

"This journey has been great! I now know that I do want to go to college because it will not only help me but help my future family as well. I've found out many new things about myself. I learned how to make high school easier by actually doing my work and focusing on learning." – J. Edwards

"I actually came to define what I believe success is and looks like! A very helpful thing was the info on college. The cost, the types and the options. I never would have gone out and gotten that by myself. This gives me much more realistic ideas about my future." – T. Trubinsky

"I learned that I have to start doing my best and do all my work because no one else is going to help me if I don't learn to help myself." – A. Cervantes

"I learned that if I am going to be successful in this world, I need to try my best ALL of the time."- J. Toal

"Get totally Real! helped me see that only you can decide what your life will be like and only you can make it happen! It made me pay attention to what matters to me."- E. Shaffer

"Doing this book made me realize that there are more steps in life to being successful than I thought. Before I knew this existed I thought I would never go to college or even think about going. I learned only I can make my 'laziness' stop and I was being really selfish thinking only about myself." – C.Peralta

"People may say that money doesn't make you happy but I've learned that NOT having any money or not being able to make enough money as an adult makes being happy much more difficult." – M. Friedman

"Get totally Real gave me a much stronger sense of who I am and what I want to become to my friends, family and society. It has taught me how to deal with my emotions and challenges so I don't give up when it gets hard." – E. McKnight

"This taught me to not just wish things happen but how to set goals and my priorities so I can make things happen for my own life!"- H Metzler
